Supervisory Attorney
Central Enforcement Docket
Federal Election Commission

RE: MUR 4985

Dear Mr. Jordan:

We are responding to the Federal Election Commission March 17, 2000 letter ("FEC Letter") sent by your office directed to Diane Ryll. While the letter only seeks a response from Diane Ryll, we are both responding because the underlying complaint sites violations by both Dennis and Diane Ryll. The FEC Letter raised two issues that require a response. (See enclosed copy of FEC Letter with attached issues.)

Issues:

1. Dennis L. Ryll, M.D. is self-employed as a real estate developer.
2. Diane Ryll gave two $1,000 donations to the Dooley for Congress Committee. One check was to be spent on the primary election and one on the general election. Based on this allocation, the FEC rules limiting primary election donations should not have been violated.

Based on this information, no action should be taken against either Dennis or Diane Ryll.
Sincerely,

Dennis L. Ryll, M.D.

MUR 4985

My name is Rickey Jamerson. My address is 3859 Sullivan Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63107. I am the complainant in this complaint regarding Federal Election Campaign Laws and Commission regulations that occur in the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000. Charlie Dooley is a candidate for the First Congressional District in Missouri and is the respondent in this action.

I believe the contribution made by the McCullough for Prosecutor Committee on page 14 of the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000 violates 2 U.S.C. 441b(a) because there may be funds included in the McCullough for Prosecutor Committee from national banks, corporations or labor organizations. For such funds to be included in this Congressional election would be a violation of Federal Election Commission laws and regulations.

I believe the contribution made by the Shalowitz for State Senate Committee on page 23 of the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000 violates 2 U.S.C. 441b(a) because there may be funds included in the Shalowitz for State Senate Committee from national banks, corporations or labor organizations. For such funds to be included in this Congressional election would be a violation of Federal Election Commission laws and regulations.

I believe the contribution made by the Citizens for Buzz Westfall Committee on page 15 of the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000 violates 2 U.S.C. 441b(a) because there may be funds included in the Citizens for Buzz Westfall Committee from national banks, corporations or labor organizations. For such funds to be included in this Congressional election would be a violation of Federal Election Commission laws and regulations.

On page 13 of the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000, Dennis Ryll is listed twice. Each entry omits his employer and occupation. This is a violation of FEC rules and regulations.

Issue
#1

On page 15 of the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000, Ted Jettner is listed. The entry omits his employer and occupation. This is a violation of FEC rules and regulations.

On page 12 of the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000, Diane Ryll is listed. The entry shows a $1000 donation for the primary election. On page 13 of the Dooley for Congress Committee year end report filed February 4, 2000, Diane Ryll is listed. The entry shows a 1000 donation for the primary election. This exceeds the $1000 limitation for the primary election and is a violation of FEC rules and regulations.
